Eine andere SichtweiseVon Ein KundeFr jeden, der sich wirklich mit dem israelisch / palestinensischem Konflikt auseinandersetzen mchte eine Pflichtlektre. Tanya Reinhard argumentiert gekonnt und schlssig ber die "anderen" Hintergrnde des Konfliktes. Sie beleuchtet detailliert Vorgnge, welche in den westlichen Medien praktisch keine Beachtung finden. Dabei nutzt sie fast ausschliesslich ffentlich zugngliche Quellen (Das Quellenverzeichnis umfasst 20 Seiten). Obwohl das Buch von einer Professorin geschrieben wurde, ist es auch fr den politisch interessierten Normalbrger gut zu lesen. Kurzbeschreibung In Israel/Palästina, Reinhart traces the development of the Security Barrier and Israels new doctrine of "disengagement," launched in response to a looming Palestinian-majority population. Examining the official record of recent diplomacy, including United States brokered accords and talks at Camp David, Oslo, and Taba, Reinhart explores the fundamental power imbalances between the negotiating parties and identifies Israels strategy of creating facts on the ground to define and complicate the terms of any future settlement. In this indispensable primer, Reinharts searing insight illuminates the current conflict and suggests a path toward change.

Synopsis A Concise History Of The Middle Eastern Conflict And The Prospects For Peace; An indispensable primer for understanding the current Middle East crisis, Israeli journalist Tanya Reinhart here closely examines the roots of the Israel/Palästina conflict and offers an invaluable analysis of core issues involved on all sides of the issue, concluding with a proposal for moving beyond the violence towards real solutions. Drawing from maps and declassified Israeli sources, Reinhart studies the details of past negotiations, expectations, shortcomings, misrepresentations and deceptions. Among her areas of focus are the Oslo years; myths and facts about what happened at Camp David; as well as the politics of Barak and Sharon compared to those of Arafat; the recent Taba negotiations; and prospects for genuine solutions.
