KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A Healing Balm for the Wounded SoulVon Florian BerndtBoyd C. Purcell joins with this book the ranks of the many voices today which have been raised up to speak out against the evil of spiritual abuse. Yet, this book does not just simply tackle the surface issues, but goes straight to the root of the problem. Based on real life experiences of his ministry as a counselor and chaplain, combined with deep theological reflection and knowledge that is rooted in a pastoral heart, the author has the potential to comfort the disturbed and disturb the comfortable as he presents the unconditional love of the One Jesus called Abba in a fresh and original way. Even if the reader does not agree with all the authors conclusions, he will find it hard to argue with the fact that this book is not written from the ivory tower of theological academia, but actually meets him in the reality of human life and suffering, thereby challenging not a few sacred cows on the way. In any way, this book will make the reader look at the Gospel in a brand new and fresh way and it is my prayer, that many will be able to challenge their hope destroying traditions, dare to ask the needed questions, be freed from their fears and find hope again in the arms of the Triune God of Grace, Who has included us all into His life, simply because that was His plan all along.

Kurzbeschreibung Spiritual Terrorism is about the impact of fear-based religion on people's lives who have been spiritually abused by a negative conception of God through eternal hell-fire preaching and teaching. The doctrine of eternal punishment in literal fire is at the heart of many forms of spiritual abuse and all forms of spiritual terrorism which is the most extreme form of spiritual abuse. This book effectively explains the symbolic use of fire in the Holy Bible and other Holy Books. The common misunderstanding of the metaphorical usage of fire is the primary cause of spiritual terrorism. Dr. Purcell clarifies the confusion over the Christian doctrine of salvation by grace and judgment which is based on the deeds of life good or bad. This allows readers to grasp the liberating truth that people are totally free to live their lives but are also totally accountable, at the end of life, for how they have lived their lives. God will ultimately teach universal empathy and bring about perfect justice for all without violating anyone's free will. Spiritual abuse has the potential to affect all stages of life: in the womb, childhood, youth, young adults, older adults, end of life, and bereavement after the deaths of loved ones. Spiritual abuse may also affect all areas of life: marriage/divorce, emotional/mental/physical abuse, medical treatment or refusal of such treatment for self and children, and domestic and international terrorism. All major world religions are addressed: Judeo/Christianity, Islam, and the Eastern Religions Buddhism and Hinduism. Included as well are Native American Beliefs. There is a theme running through all major religions of God's unconditional love, amazing grace, infinite mercy, perfect justice, and a universal homecoming.
