Faith, Simple Faith Von Ein Kunde As the book states in the beginning, "If faith is supposed to be simple--or childlike...why do we struggle so to have it?". AMEN! Faith is a topic that seems easy to discuss but difficult to apply. This six week study takes the examples of six types of faithful women in the Bible and how their faith made a difference. Learn about "Extravagant Faith" through the Woman of Ill Repute; "Laughing Faith" through the example of Sarah; "Unwavering Faith" through the story of Mary Magdalene; and "Intimate Faith" through Elizabeth. Each woman has very different experiences. And each has a very different approach. But all of them show the power of faith in their lives. And they all set some great examples for how we are to live. Although created as a group study guide, this series easily adapts to a personal devotional time. Through in-depth scripture study and life applications, this is one series that can change your life.
