Kurzbeschreibung What are you doing, Mister? Mr Butterfield, the carpenter, would really like the troublesome young boy to go away. He has serious work to do carving a new Jesse tree inside the church. But the boy is curious and persistent. In order to explain his carving, Mr Butterfield begins retelling the great stories from the Bible that he knows and loves so much. As he does so, and in spite of his short temper, small miracles begin to happen. Pressestimmen 'This is a superb collection of stories, quite one of the best in this genre.' Scholastic Best Books 2004 'McCaughrean is an extraordinarily accomplished storyteller' -- Ian Hislop Sunday Telegraph
