This is a really enjoyable book for all ages. When two children open the portal to a magical realm known as Fayrah, they start a powerful spiritual journey with Fayranians Listro Q and Aristophenix. When you start reading, you too also begin your own journey in love, friendship and faith. I recommend this book to people of all ages and hope to read the rest of the series soon!

Kurzbeschreibung Carved from the Blood Mountains, a perpetual reminder of Imagers great love for mankind, the mysterious Bloodstone opens a gateway into multiple dimensions. As Denise, Nathan, and Joshua visit these fantastic realities and learn of Imagers unfathomable compassion, they must also battle strange creations while fighting the internal wars of their own hearts. This profoundly creative and entertaining allegory for children eight to eighty is a sparkling-fresh depiction of lifes most important journey. The adventure begins as moonlight strikes the mysterious Bloodstone. Denise and Nathan are swept into exciting dimensions until they eventually enter the Portal. With the help of Aristophenix, the universes worst foe; Listro Q, a tall purple dude with dyslexic speech; and Samson, part dragonfly, part ladybug; they learn of Imager. But the crafty Illusionist and the icy-blue Bobok are out to deceive at every turn . . .
