wohnen in Ismaning und kennen Frau Frey persönlich. Von Prinz von Bayern Die Geschichte ist sehr authentisch! Ich bin der Enkel vom damaligen Bürgermeister Huber und 1942 geboren, somit habe ich einen Teil in meiner Erinnerung von der Nachkriegszeit, auch von Erzählungen meiner Mutter und von meiner Oma, die sehr viel negatives damals erlebt haben! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Very interesting book Von Thomas D. It is a very interesting and historical authentic book. The story is very captivating. It is difficult to put it down.

Kurzbeschreibung Lisa Frei and her family lived in the small village of Ismaning just outside Munich before and during the second world war. Through her painstaking research, family interviews and personal recollections, she narrates the events that took her brothers, Toni and Shorsh, to war. Conscripted to the German army; one went to Russia, while the other went to the Arctic with the Mountaineers Company. This fascinating account mingles personal stories, tragic accounts and every day family lives, against the backdrop of the most turbulent times in European history.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Lisa Frei was born in Ismaning, a village in Bavaria, Germany, near Munich. She came to England in 1962 to be an au pair girl in order to learn the English language. She had studied English for some years, but when she arrived in England she found she couldn't understand a word. However, she soon learned, took a couple of exams and then got married. In 1993 Lisa became a widow and in 2002 she moved into a cosy little semi-detached house in a small village in Nottinghamshire, to be nearer to her son Michael. Her daughter Angela lives abroad, but comes to see visit quite frequently. Lisa absolutely adores writing as well as reading other people's writing. She also loves studying languages (currently French and Arabic) and learning about other cultures and how people live. Lisa firmly believes we all have a story to tell and that anybody who wants to should write. === May we learn to live, to love, to tolerate and understand, And then may God be pleased that he created Man.
