KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Inspiration on every pageVon Ein KundeThis book is an inspiration to the reader. Combining the words of Myra Brooks Welch's famous poem, and the detailed and vibrant illustrations of Greg Newbold, The Touch of the Master's Hand provides a wonderful image of the worthiness of every individual in the eyes of God, even when other people may not recognize their worth or value. This is a book which is good for all ages.

KurzbeschreibungAn old scarred violin lies, unwanted without a bidder in an auction house, until a mature, gray bearded man, picks it up and plays a melody, pure and sweet as sweet as the angel sings. This famous poem has a long history and meaning in the secular and nonsecular worlds, that no matter how battered we are, no one is beyond redemption, all it takes is the right influence, The Touch of The Masters Hand. FREE Download link of Companion Audio to this e-book is at the very end of the e-book following Audiobooks for sale by K.
